Youngtown and Sedona Residents Win Fall 2007 Health & Wealth Raffle Early Bird Prizes Worth More Than $85,000 Each

More than 9,000 prizes, including the $1 million Grand Prize, are up for grabs ó Tickets are selling fast as the Final Entry Cut-off of midnight, Oct. 24 nears

Net Proceeds Benefit St. Joseph's Hospital and Barrow Neurological Institute

What: Two Arizonans won the fabulous Early Bird Prize Packages as the Fall 2007 Health & Wealth Raffle nears its Final Entry Cut-off of midnight, Wednesday, October 24. The winners of the Early Bird prize packages were drawn on Friday, October 12:

- Youngtown resident Pat Warrick, 66, won Early Bird Prize Package #1: A 2007 BMW 328 Convertible and a nine-night romantic cruise on a luxury barge along the canals and rivers of France, plus $18,000 cash. Prize Package Value: more than $85,000.

Warrick and her husband, Fred, had just returned from a vacation in Cancun when Kathy Rice, manager of the Health & Wealth Raffle, called them with the good news.

õI'm elated. I still can't believe it,õ Warrick said. õWe've entered three or four times in the past and once won a small prize. And, then, when I was in third grade, I won an art contest. But, we've never won anything like this, and we feel very fortunate!õ

A native of southern California and an Arizona resident for 25 years, Warrick said she purchased a three-pack of tickets for $250 because of the cause. Though she does not have a personal connection to the hospital, she is being treated by a neurologist for a health condition that affects her legs.

õI appreciated the fact that the Raffle helps fund research projects,õ she said. õBesides, I figured if I am going to take a chance at winning a prize, I'd rather see my money go to a good cause than buy new furniture for casinos in Laughlin or Las Vegas.õ

Now that Fred has retired from his auto electric business, Warrick said they have more time to travel and visit their five children.

õWe're still considering what we will do with the trip to France,õ she said. õFred has been there but I have not.õ

The couple has decided they will not keep the BMW convertible.

- Sedona resident Diane Glatt, 60, won Early Bird Prize Package #2: A 2008 Mercedes E320 Bluetec and a seven-night Egyptian Splendor trip, plus $15,000 cash. Prize Package Value: more than $85,000.

Glatt, who entered the Raffle just once before, said she was confident that she was going to win.

õEvery time I saw the commercials on television, I just had a really good feeling. I knew I had a really good chance of winning a prize, so I purchased a three-pack of tickets for $250,õ she said.

She also wanted to show her support for St. Joseph's Hospital. Her primary care physician referred her to the hospital earlier this year for a breast MRI.

“There are no facilities here in Yavapai County that could conduct this type of test. My doctor had identified a mass and needed the MRI prior to my surgery,” she explained.

Glatt said her experience at St. Joseph’s Hospital was a positive one.

“They were wonderful – very kind and they explained the process every step of the way. I was very impressed,” she said.

A native of southern California, she and her husband, Tom, moved to Sedona five years ago. Glatt is a semi-retired financial consultant, while her husband continues to serve as chief executive officer of a financial institution in California.

Though she had a hunch she was going to win, she said she was still very surprised when Kathy Rice, raffle manager, called her with the good news.

“My cheeks are aching from laughing and smiling,” she said. “It hasn’t settled in yet. Each time I think about it, I can’t help but start giggling!”

A mother of two daughters, Glatt said she and her husband are very grateful for their prize package. They do not need a new car, so they are considering their options regarding the Mercedes. However, she has always wanted to see Egypt, so they will most likely keep the vacation portion of their prize.

Next: There is still a chance to win one of the more than 9,000 prizes in the Fall 2007 Health & Wealth Raffle, but tickets are selling fast. The deadline to purchase tickets for the Final Draw is midnight, Wednesday, October 24, with the Final Draw set for Thursday, November 1.

There are four Grand Prizes in the Final Draw:

- Grand Prize #1 - $1 million cash
- Grand Prize #2 - $500,000 cash
- Grand Prize #3 - a 2007 Bentley Continental GT Convertible plus $55,000 cash. Or, the winner can take the cash equivalent of $260,000.
- Grand Prize #4 - a Monaco Grand Prix Experience plus $50,000 cash. The winner will fly to Nice, France, for five days of glamour in Monte Carlo, including dinner with Prince Albert, VIP seats for the world’s most exotic auto race, and tickets to the Cannes Film Festival. Or, the winner can take the cash equivalent of $100,000.
